SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT!

The City is excited to announce the expansion and relocation of two popular Historic Downtown retailers, Calico Jacks and Totally Vintage Designs. Both currently occupy spaces on Battle Street, but when the building was sold in January, each began exploring opportunities to grow, including potential relocations. The City's Department of Economic Development has worked very closely with these businesses to ensure they remained in Historic Downtown.

Calico Jacks, which specializes in handcrafted natural products for your body and home, will move into a larger shop in the same building, 9413 Battle Street, currently occupied by Totally Vintage Designs. Calico Jacks anticipates reopening no later than October 29, and will continue to accept online orders at www.calicojacksnaturals.com, during the move.

Totally Vintage Designs, a boutique that retails faux mineral based paints, vintage furniture and home accessories will move to 9216 Center Street, the Rohr Building; many may recall when the Opera House Gourmet filled this prime corner spot at Center and Battle. Totally Vintage Designs will reopen in its new location October 18th, please go to their website for additional information related to the move at www.totallyvintagedesign.com.
