Featured Business: Didlake Document Imaging

Didlake Inc., a Manassas-based non-profit that connects people with disabilities to employment, education and inclusive opportunities throughout the National Capital region, recently announced the launch of Didlake Document Imaging at 8472 Kao Circle in Manassas.

For over 20 years Didlake has been involved in file conversion, tracing its roots back to microfilm. Over the decades, that experience has moved into digital conversion services for federal and state customers. Didlake is now expanding that service to businesses through Didlake Document Imaging, a division of Didlake, Inc. Didlake Document Imaging is fulfilling Didlake's mission by employing people with varying abilities who will receive valuable job training and work experience.

"We provide a simple, secure, cost-effective transition from physical to digital files while creating job opportunities that enrich the lives of

Featured Partner: Manassas Visitor Center

Tourism is a critical contributor to the Manassas economy. Historic Downtown Manassas--with its small-town charm--continues to draw people from far and wide. In fact, data released by the United States Travel Association (USTA) reveals that the City of Manassas continued its trend of annual gains for the ninth consecutive year with expenditures reaching $72.7 million, a 2.3% increase from 2017. In 2018 visitor spending was directly responsible for 583 jobs with an annual payroll of $12.3 million and $1.9 million in local tax receipts.

often begin at downtown's iconic symbol: the Historic Manassas Train Depot. Inside, the Manassas Visitor Center is filled with information (including brochures and maps) for those wanting to explore our 19-century city and learn about its important heritage.

In addition to the railroad junction's crucial role in the city's development and growth over the years, this renovated 1914 depot (officially known as the James and Marion Payne Railroad Heritage Gallery) is a convenient stop for daily Amtrak and Virginia Railway Express commuter trains connecting Manassas with Washington, DC and beyond.

Historic Manassas Visitor Center is open seven days a week, 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day. It is located at 9431 West Street in Historic Downtown Manassas.
